

KANSAS EDUCATION EMPLOYMENT BOARD

2019

Through the Kansas State Department of Education (KSDE), the Kansas Education Employment Board (KEEB), administered by the Southeast Kansas Education Service Center (Greenbush), is a free recruitment service aimed at attracting highly qualified candidates to Kansas education jobs.

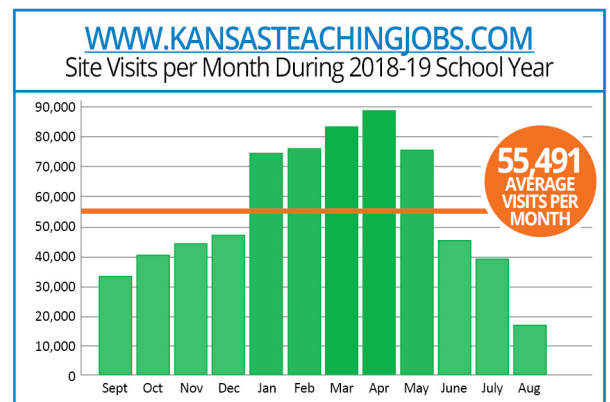

KEEB provides an innovative, user-friendly, universal recruitment and employment website (www.kansasteachingjobs.com) that Kansas schools and universities can use to advertise job openings. KEEB allows applicants to apply for positions electronically and provides information on licensure, state sponsored tuition and scholarship programs, and resumé assistance. Additionally, KEEB produces the annual Kansas Special Education Attrition Report to determine the number of individuals leaving special education positions in Kansas each year.

KEEB PROVIDES FREE RECRUITMENT SERVICES

During the 2018-19 school year, the KEEB website amassed 1,325,499 pageviews, averaging 110,458 pageviews per month. In addition to the Kansans who are the site's primary audience, individuals from 49 other states and 23 other nations have accounts on the website.

KEEB is utilized by school districts throughout Kansas. Every school district in Kansas has used the www.kansasteachingjobs.com website to recruit educators. Top job categories with vacancies during the 2018-19 school year included elementary, secondary, coaching, special education, and administration positions.

OVER 6,400 POSITIONS
WERE POSTED TO KANSASTEACHINGJOBS.COM
IN THE PAST YEAR

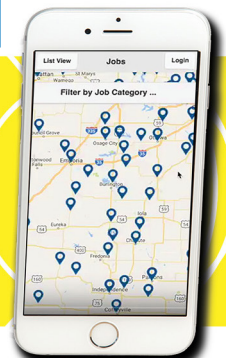

As of August 2019, 6,570 applicants had logged into the KEEB website within the last 24 months. A total of 6,424 jobs were posted through the website between July 1, 2018 and August 1, 2019. This free recruitment service enables applicants to identify positions by job category, certification, search terms and/or location. Applicants can upload their resumé and other pertinent documents to their portfolios, streamlining the application process.

KEEB provides an app, in map form, allowing applicants to access job postings matching their certifications. By hovering over or clicking on an icon, potential applicants can navigate to specific job openings in their preferred region of the state.
